

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIPS (WITH DATES)

- 2006: Senate Research Grant year 2006. Proposal-Community screening and trial of dietary intervention for chronic kidney disease in Ibadan. Sole Investigator. This proposal was written based on his experience in the field of nephrology and attempt to assess community prevalence and pattern of a disease that has become a public health problem globally. The fund was not enough to execute the project so the grant was not accessed.
- 2003 NIH research grant in collaboration with Loyola University Chicago, USA- Project- Genetics of Hypertension in Blacks: Recruitment of Hypertension Cases for Genome-Wide Association. Co-Principal Investigator.
Project completed about a year ago with several number of publications.
Principal Investigator: Professor Richard Cooper,
(in Nigeria) Professor: Adesola Ogunniyi
- 2001: College of Medicine, University of Ibadan, Research Grant 2001 (Joint award) Proposal- Relationship between urinary albumin excretions, hypertension in Pregnancy and preeclampsia/eclampsia. – Principal Investigator
- 2000: Fellow, World Heart Federation at the 33rd International Teaching Seminar Lake, Baringo, 8th-21st July, Kenya. The fellowship attracted several entries all over the world with only 30 chosen. The program provided update on research development and the management of cardiovascular disorders, a major cause of morbidity and mortality in the world
- 2000: Senate Research Grant year 2000. Proposal “Frequency and pattern of target organ damage in newly diagnosed hypertensive subjects”. Principal Investigator
- 2000: Senate Research Grant year 2000 (Joint award). Proposal-Lead and blood pressure patterns in exposed and unexposed Nigerians - Co-Investigator
- 1998/1999 Senate Research Grant year 1998/1999 (Joint award) (Inter-Departmental/Inter-Faculty/Multidisciplinary research) Proposal- Assessment of some probable genetic risk factors of hypertension in Nigeria - Co-Investigator