Federal Government Public Service Rules

FOREWORD

Public Service Rules (PSR) define the employment relationship between employees in the Public Service and the Government. The document serves as a guide to public servants who rely on its provisions in the implementation of national development agenda and conduct of Government business. As governance is dynamic and a reflection of current trends in the society, it becomes imperative to review the Rules and Regulations that guide government business from time to time. This Edition of the Public Service Rules is therefore a review of the 2008 Edition principally to bring them in line with the current trends in governance. This becomes more significant for the current administration that is poised to promote transparency, rule of law and fight corruption. It is to be noted that an effective and efficient Public Service cannot be realised without adherence to Rules and Regulations.

It is delightful to note that in the 2021 Edition of Public Service Rules (PSR), emerging issues such as Performance Management System, Talent Sourcing, Volunteerism, Virtual Meetings/Engagements which are products of our recent experience in the management of COVID-19 Pandemic and many others, are reflected. The long-term goal of this review therefore, is to achieve an efficient and effective Public Service that will contribute to sustainable national development.

The Public Service Rules (PSR) as a document is an indispensable tool in the hands of Public Servants who desire to succeed in their career. While all the Public Servants will find the updated Rules useful in their daily conduct of government business, new entrants into the Service as well as Chief Executive Officers (CEOs) of government parastatals and agencies, will require the Rules to succeed in their assignments.

As we are determined to ensure transparency and good governance in Public Service, I am confident that Public Servants have the potentials to deliver effective and efficient services to all Nigerians and other stakeholders in the Nigerian Project. One of the key strategies to achieve this is by strict adherence to Rules and Regulations embodied in the 2021 edition of the Public Service Rules.

I urge all Public Servants to acquaint themselves with these Rules and Regulations as well as other extant laws to enable them to become Efficient, Productive, Incorruptible and Citizen-Centered Public Servants.

Lastly, I commend the Head of the Civil Service of the Federation, all Public Officers and other stakeholders who had worked tirelessly to bring the 2021 Edition of PSR into fruition.

MUHAMMADU BUHARI, GCFR
President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria
State House, Abuja.

PREAMBLE

This 2021 edition of the Public Service Rules has been done to reflect the current realities of the Public Service to make it more responsive to the demands of service delivery with due emphasis on efficiency, effectiveness, and performance. Due cognizance was also given to the 'New Normal' as dictated by the COVID-19 pandemic in the new approach to the conduct of Government business through multimedia, working from home and virtual platforms.

Public Servants are therefore, implored to study and imbibe these Rules and their associated and complementary Instructions, Guidelines and extant Circulars, as well as all Laws and Procedures guiding the conduct of public administration and financial management in order to ensure due process and probity in the conduct of Government business.

The following should be taken into account while going through these Rules :

1. Method of Numbering

Each Rule has been given a number containing six digits. The first two indicate the Chapter; the next two, the Section; and the last two, the Rule Number.

2. Arrangement of Chapters, Sections and Rules

There are nineteen (19) Chapters arranged as listed in the Table of Contents. Under each Chapter is written the Sections and at the right-hand corner, the titles of the Rules are indicated. Except where otherwise indicated by the context, the Index contains the list of topics with their corresponding Rule numbers.

3. Amendments

Further amendments to these Rules become necessary when new policies are formulated. The accompanying Manuals and Guidelines for its implementation, in some instances, shall be made through Circulars, which will be issued from time to time.

4. Review of the Public Service Rules

The Public Service Rules (PSR) shall be reviewed every five years to update the provisions of the rules and to accommodate the provisions in Circulars issued between the period of previous review and the PSR.

The Public Service Rules should be widely circulated to all categories of Public Servants. Other Nigerian citizens are also encouraged to avail themselves of its contents

Chapter 4

Ground for Withholding or Deferring Increments.

040204.— The grant of an increment may be deferred or withheld in accordance with the provisions of Rule 040205 and 040206. In deciding which penalty to impose or recommend, a Permanent Secretary/Head of Extra-Ministerial Office will take into account the gravity of the shortcoming and the quality of the officer's previous service, bearing in mind that to withhold an increment is a more serious penalty than to defer it.

Deferred Increment.

040205.— An Officer's increment is deferred when the decision as to whether or not it shall be granted is postponed for a specific period. The period must be fixed at the time the increment is deferred and must not be less than three months nor more than six months. If less than six months in the first instance, it may, if necessary, be increased to six months by additional specific deferment. If a deferred increment is eventually granted it does not become effective until the day following the expiration of the specific period of deferment. However, the recipient retains his original incremental date for subsequent increments. If a deferred increment is not granted at or before the expiration of six months from the date it was originally due it must be withheld.

For example, if an Officer who is due to proceed from N147,968 to N152,950 per annum on 1/1/2005 had his increment deferred for three months his salary shall remain at N147,968 until 31/3/2005 when his Permanent Secretary/Head of Extra-Ministerial Office must decide whether or not to grant the deferred increment. If he grants it, the Officer draws monthly emolument at N152,950 for the period 1/4/2005 to 31/12/2005 (i.e. the remaining nine months) and retains his original incremental date of 1st January for consideration of his next increment to N157,932.

Withheld Increment.

040206.— An Officer's increment is withheld when it is decided not to grant it and that he shall cease to be eligible thereof until his next incremental date. The withholding of an increment thus results in the emolument of the Officer in question remaining for the rest of his incremental service years one increment behind what it would have been had the increment not been withheld (unless the Federal Civil Service Commission exercises the authority described in Rule 040209).

Example : An Officer due to proceed from N147,968 to N152,950 per annum on 1-1-2005 had his increment withheld. His emolument should remain at N147,968 throughout the period 1/1/2005 to 31/12/2005 and he cannot proceed to N152,950 until 1/1/2006, his next incremental date.

not Restored in retrospect.

040207.— An increment deferred or withheld cannot be restored with retrospective effect in consequence of improved service during a later increment earning period.

Notice to Restore increment.

040208.— Immediately on deciding to restore an increment, which had earlier been withdrawn or deferred, the Permanent Secretary/Head of Extra-Ministerial Office should bring the decision to the notice of the Officer.
